STRONG ELEVEN PROMISED

M'ANDREWS AND BOYLE ON THE LINE-UP.

A meeting of football players was held in the Y. M. C. A. parlors last evening and the foundation laid for what promises to be the greatest footteam ever organized in this city Dr. Piummer, chairman of the athletic inated in last night's meet ies with his management.

It is the intention of the manage-It is the intention of the management to bring several outside teams here this season and give the local patrons of the game the best gridiron sport ever seen in the city. Manager Porter will at once open communication with several of the teams that have written here for games, including the Uyoming university, Colorada college, Washburn college, University of Denver, Denver Athletic club, Agricultural college of Colorado and the Olympic Athletic club of San Francisco, with a view of securing games with them.

with them.

The prospective material was talked over and an effort will be made to get all of the well known football players in the city to join the new team. It was decided not to appoint a coach or in the city to join the new team. It was decided not to appoint a coach or captain last evening, but McAndrews and Boyle were appointed a temporary committee to take charge of the first practice, which will be held Saturday night. They will be on hand with a set of signals and try the candidates out for the different positions. Both these men have had training in eastern chaeges as late as last season and have records behind them that cannot be excelled.

Worther, last year's center on the High school team is another new face hat will be seen in the Y. M. C. A lineup this year. Hyde, Cdell, Margetts, Allen, Richards, Taylor, Seare, Dans Smith and Meyers are a few of the possible candidates for this year's eleven. the possible candidates for this year's eleven. Dr. Plummer has promised the boys a place for outdoor practice at night just as soon as the preliminary work in the gymnasium is over.

McAndrews and Boyle were seen last evening after the meeting was over, and both expressed themselves as pleased with the outlook for a first-class team. They say that with the available material at hand there is no peason why the Y. M. C. A. cannot have a team that will compete with the best organizations in the west, and that they are willing to do all in their power to make a team of this kind.

Suddenly lightning began to fork and zig zag about while the valley roared and echoed with thunder that crackled continuously. Soon rain began to fall and the lightning ceased, but meanwhile the current had actually leaped from the clouds to the line wires in several places, burning out many transformers and splintering crossbars in two instances. Manager Wade stated that the loss to his company was heavy, but nothing but an estimate could be
